Court admitted to record seventeen deeds of bargain, sale, trust, release, &c., and issured marriage-licenses to four white and three colored couples. For the month of October no licenses were issued. For the corresponding month of 1876 marriagelicenses were issued to three white and three colored couples. In the County Court for November thirty-two deeds were recorded, and marriage licenses issued to seven white couples and one colored couple. For the month of November, 1876, marriage-licenses were issued to nine white and two colored couples.

Potice Statistics .- Captain Lipseombe, chief of police, reports forty arrests for the past month. Most of these were for petit larceny and ordinance violations. There were three cases of felony; of these two (Whitchurst and Elliott) were discharged. In the case of Reams the charge of felony was dismissed and he was convicted of assault and battery.

The Late Difficulty in Chesterfield .- The difficulty which occurred in Chesterfield recently between Messrs. McGruder, Cosby, and the Harris Brothers, has been amicably settled, the parties meeting and shaking hands as friends. Mr. Zack. McGruder has instructed his counsel to withdraw the pros-

Death of a Venerable Lady.-The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Heider, mother of William Heider, Esq., was announced in yesterday's Dispatch. Mrs. Heider was ninety. years of age and the oldest person living in the city. She had resided here many years, and was generally beloved and respected. The Inneral took place yesterday evening from St. John's German Lutheran church, Richmond.

Personal .- Among the visitors to the city yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Conner, of Petersburg. They are guests of Mrs. Conner's sister, Mrs. John A. Cersley.

Honor to Whom Honor is Duc .- In the Dispatch of yesterday it was stated that Messrs. N. B. Johnson, James A. Lipscombe, and Coleman Wells were unremitting in their attentions, &c. The credit should have been given to their estimable ladies. Messrs. Johnson and Lipseombe did full justice to the feast themselves, but Mr. Wells was attending a church-meeting.

On the Canal.-Matters remain unchanged on the canal. All the lessees are busily engaged in preparing for a resumption of operations. In the First Ward matters are resuming their even tenor, and in a few days the great flood (save as a bitter memory) will be numbered among the things that were.

Mayor's Court .- Mayor Clarke had only one case before him yesterday. That involved the ownership of a cocoanut-cutter. A criminal warrant had been issued, but the case was evidently one of unlawful detainer. Verdict for the defendant, with possession of the property.

To be Removed .- Messrs. Godsey & Shell, coopers, who were washed out by the late flood and burned out in 1875, intend to remove their shop from Second and Decatur streets to Fourth and Stockton, and above the high-water line. They have asked and expect to obtain permission of the Committee on Fire Department for the removal.

The Gity Jail .- There are at , this time twelve persons in the city fail, as follows:
One white woman (suspected of lunacy).
three white men, one colored woman, and seven colored men.

FOR RENT, ONE OF THOSE NEW and Third street, Gamble's Hill, in the most thorough order, with modern conveniences, and at a low figure if early application be made to Dr. G. B. STEEL.

Chesterfield Farms .- Some of the most flourishing farms in Chesterfield county are within a few miles of Manchester. Prominent among these may be mentioned the Holly Springs farm of Major Joseph Walker, and the farms of Ignatius and Henry Schute, Daniel Bliley, and others. As near as Chesterfield is to market there is no reason why all the farms in this vicinity should not be made productive as truck-farms and market-gardens.

Cemetery Report .- Superintendent Perque reports five interments at Maury Cemetery for the past month. Of this number one was a colored pauper.

FOREIGN NEWS.

From Plevna. The Vienna correspondent of the Times states that the rumors of negotiation for the surrender of Plevna are contradicted from the Russian camp itself. The Turkish prisoners, moreover, assert that Osman Pasha has supplies for many weeks, and has addressed his officers announcing his intention to hold out to the last man.

France. Paris, November 30 .- The Moniteur says MacMahon holds that the Chamber can, by voting the budget, easily prove that it did not intend that Saturday's vote should be considered as a declaration of war against him. If the Chamber thus shows a conciliation of the Chamber thus shows a conciliation the President will french.

CAPSTON, No. 303 north Twelfth street. tory disposition the President will frankly fulfil his promise to appoint a thoroughly parliamentary Ministry. If the Chamber does not show such a disposition the President must ask the Senate to choose between his resignation and a fresh dissolution. Critical Condition of the Pope.

ROME, November 30 .- The Pope passed a sleepless night, and it is feared rheumatism is approaching his heart. A Berlin correspondent of the Times says that Germany is not averse to establishing more amicable relations with the papacy if a temperate Pope, who will not interfere with Germany's new political relations, should be elected.

'RAH FOR THE MOFFETT PUNCH!-Commissioner J. L. Richardson informs us that the amount of revenue due the State from the sale of alcoholic liquors in this town for the first two weeks since the introduction of the register is $93.75% This does not include the tax on malt liquors. At this rate Farmville will pay annually a tax of $2,437.50 on ardent spirits, instead of less than $500 under the previous system. A clear gain of $2,000 a year towards paying the State debt from Farmville alone is a great fact, which will speak louder in favor of the Moffett punch than all the windy or ations of its opponents, who, truth to say, are, "few and far between" in this section. Most of our people are for the punch " first, last, and all the time."-Farmville Mercury.
